

RESOLUTION No. 15-871

WHEREAS, the City Council and the Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama are apprised that Love Ministries will hold a ribbon cutting during their Grand Opening Celebration, to be held November 21, 2015; and,

WHEREAS, Love Ministries is a senior-based organization that helps those in need. Love Ministries offers utility assistance, house repair assistance, and a van service, along with a feeding program for those 65 and over and a food bank for all ages; and,

WHEREAS, Love Ministries was founded by Minister Walter Peavy in November of 1996. Love Ministries will celebrate its 19th Anniversary this year; and,

WHEREAS, Minister Peavy became a minister at the tender age of fifteen. He knew what it meant to teach people the word of God. Throughout the years, he has served in other capacities throughout Huntsville and the surrounding areas: he is the Founder of WDJL Love 1000 and has been the pastor for more than twelve years, he has 44 years of radio experience and has been a community leader for over thirty years, he formed the first unity committee in Huntsville and Madison, and has received over 200 awards for community service; and,

WHEREAS, Minister Peavy attended Selma University and Huntsville Bible College. He was also the winner of the GRT award for top gospel announcer in 2006 and 2008.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council and Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Alabama, gratefully acknowledge, congratulate, and extend best wishes to Love Ministries and Minister Walter Peavy in recognition of their Grand Opening Celebration. May you have continued success in all future endeavors.

ADOPTED this the 19th day of November, 2015.
